

Minister to Leave

The Choctaw Herald March 19, 1914 – transcribed by Ron Henson

Rev. S.L. Holloway, pastor of the First Baptist church, will preach his farewell sermon tonight at the First Baptist church. Mr. Holloway has been called to the position of city missionary at El Paso, Texas, and he will leave some time during the approaching week for his new field of labor.

Rev. Holloway has been pastor of the First Baptist church here for the past three years and has made a great many friends in the city during that time, every one of whom regret to know that this reverend gentleman will leave Hugo. He has been very successful in his work at this place and has built his congregation up to one of the largest, if not the largest, in the city. He is a noble man, full of earnest zeal in his chosen work, and the people of Hugo heartily recommend him to the good people of El Paso.
