

Fort Towson's Representative Town Builders
Not Boomers, But Wide Awake Citizens
Who are in Line for Progress and Prosperity

The Ft Towson Enterprise August 11, 1905 - transcribed & contributed by Ron Henson

P.M. Peters

One of the youngest business men and hustlers in Fort Towson is P.M. Peters, who carries a general merchandise stock and has other interests in the town. He is also a tie contractor and is kept busy getting out ties for the Red River Timber Co., along the Frisco railroad.

Mr. Peters came here from New Boston, Texas, the first of the year and became a permanent resident. He is not only a good business man, but always puts forth every effort to induce people to locate here. His brother, W.E. Peters, will locate here soon.