

Bismark No More

The Fort Towson Enterprise – January 24, 1919 – transcribed by Ron Henson

Address your mail to Wright, Oklahoma, instead of Bismark. The change from the German to the American name is in honor of William W. Wright, the first young man from that place to make the supreme sacrifice, who went down with the ill-fated Tuscania, on February 3, 1917.