

Baptist Church Gets New Pastor

The Fort Towson News February 12, 1932 – transcribed by Ron Henson

In a meeting of church officials Wednesday night, the Baptists of this city voted to call the Rev. James A. Bryant as pastor of the church here.

Mrs. Bryant and their two children will leave their home in Pauls Valley this week and join Mr. Bryant here. They will occupy rooms in the C.P. Smith home.

Rev. Bryant and wife have done a wonderful work in the church and community at Pauls Valley. Their coming here will give impetus to the entire church movement in Ft. Towson. The News extends heartfest [sic] welcome to this new family to Ft. Towson.
