

LIQUOR CASES ON COUNTY DOCKET

Next Term Set November 15

The Hugo Daily News October 29, 1939

Transcribed by Ron Henson

Three liquor cases and three cases involving operation of slot machines will be on the docket when the next term of county court opens here November 15, County Judge T.W. Hunter will preside.

W.L. (Preacher) Swink is charged in two cases with possession of intoxicating liquors. Gordon Gibson also must face a charge of liquor possession.

Ralph K. Jenner will be tried on two charges of operating and permitting to be operated slot machines. Mac Flynn Jr. will be tried on a similar charge.

Judgment and sentence will be passes in the following cases: J.L. Johnson, Mae Wilburn, Bertha Ward, Tom Snow, Bell Turley, Johnnie Wilson, Willie Young, Ransom Pittman and Frank Brouse.