

H.E. Colvin Home Damaged By Fire

The Hugo Daily News December 11, 1939

Transcribed by Ron Henson

A house belonging to H.E. Colvin at 809 South K street was considerably damaged by fire caused by a faulty kitchen flue about 1:30 o'clock, according to Firechief Clyde Garrison.

Damage was estimated at $800 with the loss partially covered by insurance. No one was at home at the time of the fire.

Household belongings were saved, but were badly damaged by water and smoke.