

Daylight Burial is Forbidden

The Hugo Husonian 1913 – transcribed by Ron Henson

By authority of law, all burial of small pox patients is forbidden during daylight. Interment must be made after 11 o'clock at night.

By order of H.L. Wright, County Superintendent of Health