

The Submarine Boswell March 12, 1914

Attorney Whitley visited Hugo on legal business.

J.P. Basye of Yarnaby was in town Wednesday.

We are glad to see Streets being graded again. Our street commissioner, Mr. Loudermilk is to be congratulated upon the condition in which he has kept the streets.

J.W. Burriss of Huckabay Texas was in town this week visiting old friends and attending to business affairs.

Mrs. Jno. J. Stephens was called to the bedside of relatives, at Martinsville, Arkansas, who are very sick.

T. Bender of the St. Louis Store left Sunday to purchase Spring Stock. Look out for their opening later.

C.D. Donalson of Augusta Kansas was in town Tuesday looking for a location.

Mr. Bos Richardson a merchant of Monkstown, Texas was in the city this week attending to business affairs.

J.A. Karr received word Saturday form [sic] Gillam Ark., that the residences of Jno. Whitley and Jno. Rober were destroyed by fire.

The residence of Rev. E.T. Thorne of Hugo, former pastor of the Baptist church here, was destroyed by fire last Sunday.

J.M. Echert opened his furniture store in the Burrus Bros. brick Saturday.