

The Submarine Boswell June 12, 1914

Miss Elnor McCann is attending the normal at Hugo; also, Professor J.M. Ingram.

Burl Woolbright was in Hugo Thursday.

"Carpenter" Rodgers, Roy Dwight and Jack Bolton went fishing Thursday evening and judging from the shower that fell we expect they got a wetting.

There is a special revival service in progress at the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. E.L. Wilson, of Oklahoma City.

Preaching at 8 o'clock each evening for all Boswell.

Bring a friend.

H.M. Roberts moved his family here from Clarksville, Texas, Tuesday.

Mr. Brittan, from across Muddy Boggy was in town Tuesday.

B.L. Burros and family sold their home last Friday to Earnest Irby, and they have moved to Norman, Oklahoma, where they will make their future home.

S.F. Willcut has purchased the grocery store of B.L. Burrus & Son.

Mr. Thomas and wife, of Mineola, Texas, purchased the Hollman restaurant and took possession yesterday.

Prof. J.R. Lewis is attending the Normal at Hugo.

Swan Burrus has opened a Racket Store at Swearingen's old stand.

Last Saturday the two year old child of Mr. Webb Burns was run over by a wagon and its shoulder crushed. The child is doing well.

The case of Small Pox is reported progressing favorable.

Gus Pickens is much better and will be out again in a few days.