Congressman Carter chooses private secretary from Hugo this year

Miss Nellie Barrett, for five years junior member of the law firm of Spriggs and Barrett, has been appointed private secretary to Congressman Charles D. Carter, and leaves Monday for Ardmore, the home of Congressman Carter from whence she will go immediately to Washington to assume her duties.

Miss Barrett is the only woman attorney in this section of Oklahoma and is one of the most talented young women of the state. Her appointment by Congressman Carter as his private secretary comes as a surprise to the majority in fact all but the closest friends but will be met with approval throughout the country.

She will remain a member of the firm of Spriggs & Barrett.
