

NEW MINISTERS ARRIVE IN HUGO
Three Churches in the City Have New Pastors

The Hugo Husonian November 19, 1908 – transcribed by Ron Henson

Rev. J.F. Roberts, the newly appointed pastor of the Methodist church, arrived here Sunday and delivered his initial sermon to his congregation in the evening. He is a cultured and talented young minister who has been in this field for several years coming to Oklahoma from Baltimore, Md. He was pastor of the church at Wilburton last year.

Rev. J.L. McKinstry and wife arrived here last week from Wahaw, N.C., and will accept pastoral charge of the Presbyterian church. He occupied the pulpit Sunday morning and evening and gave every evidence of being a profound thinker as well as orator.

Rev. R.E. Cornelius, of Royse Texas, who recently accepted the call of the First Baptist church here, removed his family here last Saturday and will reside in Springs Addition. He has delivered several forcible sermons and will take rank as one of the leading ministers in this part of the state.

Rev. W.P. Pipkin has been transferred to Afton, in the Vinita district and left his week to take up his work.

Rev. G.A. Lovett, formerly pastor of the Methodist church here was transferred to Wilburton and writes that he is well pleased with his church and surroundings.
