

Dr. A.A. McQueen

Confederate Veteran Here to Live

The Hugo Husonian July 13, 1911 - transcribed by Ron Henson

Dr. A.A. McQueen, formerly of Weatherford, Texas, arrived in the city this week to make his future home with his brother, Judge W.L. McQueen. Dr. McQueen is a Confederate veteran, having served four years in the war as a sergeant. He has been for the past forty five years engaged in the practice of medicine, and is now seventy-six years of age. He has retired from active life, and came here to spend the remaining years of his life with his brother.
