

THREE ARE HELD IN BABY CASE

The Hugo Husonian April 18, 1912 - transcribed by Ron Henson

At the preliminary held before Justice Biard at Grant today, Ethel Nixon and her mother, Mrs. J.W. Nixon, were held to the district court for manslaughter, and the mother of the baby, Mattie Nixon, was held to the same court for concealing the death of an infant.

This places the Nixon baby's death case in the district court, and may result in further developments.
